

Dear children, parents and carers,

This year, World Book Day is being celebrated on 1st March 2018 and we will be dressing up as characters from books at Stonelow. It is always fantastic if you can also bring the book which matches the character into school too. It is lovely to see where your inspiration has come from. On the day, there will be activities based around books and £1 tokens will be shared to take home.

As a parent myself, I appreciate that some parents/children will already have dressing up outfits which they can use. However, some of you won't. We want this to be a fun activity and creativity is the key. There is no need to spend a lot of money on a costume or accessories. Adapt old clothes, borrow items and make things. Just have fun!

There will also be a book fair in the school hall during the week commencing Monday 19th March 2018. A timetable for opening times will follow. Your £1 book token can be used against the price of a book or there is a list of £1 books available (see <http://www.worldbookday.com/books/>)

We are all really looking forward to the day and to share books together.
Mrs Collins
