Module: Computer Safety

Topic: Making Friends Online and Summative Assessment

Year
3

Key Facts

- It is important to consider your online friendships and sources of information
- People sometimes behave differently online, including by pretending to be someone they are not

By the end of this topic, I should:

- be able to identify possible dangers and consequences of talking to strangers online
- know how to keep safe in online chatrooms
- be able to name the positives and negatives of using technology
- understand the difference between safe and risky choices online

Ask me a question!

- If you are worried or unsure about something you see online, what could you do? Who could you speak to?
- If you receive a message online from someone you do not know, what could you do?
- If someone was worried about something they had seen online, how could you help them?

I will learn the following new words/phrases:

Chatroom	A group of people living in the same place or sharing a common interest.
Report	Give a spoken or written account of something that one has observed, heard, done, or investigated.
Reply	Say something in response to something someone has said.
Respond	Do something as a reaction to someone or something.
Childline	A free, private and confidential service where you can talk about anything.
